

Hooray for Vouvray!

A taste-along SWEbinar
featuring the wines of the Loire Valley
Presented by Jane Nickles, CSE, CWE

Wednesday, February 6, 2019 (7:00 pm CST)
Saturday, February 9, 2019 (10:00 am CST)

From the Pays Nantais to Pouilly-Fumé and Vouvray, the Loire Valley produces some of the most interesting, delicious, and diverse wines on earth! Join us as we tackle some serious wine education in the best of all possible ways – with French wine in hand. We hope you'll join us and taste along, but we promise this session will be fun and educational even without the wine!

Wine List and Tasting Order:

Wine #1: Crémant de Loire (blanc, brut, non-vintage). The presenter will be using Château de Brézé, Crémant de Loire.

Wine #2: Muscadet Sévre et Maine Sur Lie 2016. The presenter will be using L'Aubinière Muscadet Sévre et Maine Sur Lie 2016.

Wine #3: Vouvray 2017 (dry/off-dry, still). The presenter will be using Champalou Vouvray 2017.

Wine #4: Pouilly-Fumé 2017. The presenter will be using Régis Minet "Vieilles Vignes" Pouilly-Fumé 2017.

Wine #5: Bourgueil 2017 (red). The presenter will be using Domaine de la Chanteleuserie "Cuvée Alouettes" Bourgueil 2017.

For more information on this session, including login instructions, please visit our website:

<http://winewitandwisdomswe.com/swebinars-2/swebinars/>

Please email Jane Nickles with any questions: jnickles@societyofwineeducators.org

